

Kristina Craig

2013 ICMA NOMINEE FOR
Female Vocalist, New Artist, & Vocal Group of the Year

Kristina is a Country/Christian, Singer/Songwriter, originally from a small town in the Sandhills of Western Nebraska.

She was a finalist on the ABC Primetime Special, "Six Degrees of Martina McBride", and chosen as "People's Choice" for her performance at the Wild Horse Saloon in Nashville.

Her newest album, Angel With Tattoos, is filled with wholesome music, ranging from classic country to fun, up-tempo with a touch of rock.

The Kristina Craig Band crosses over generational lines with a show delivering traditional country music, as well as contemporary radio hits! They are filling churches, rodeo arenas, fairs, festivals and much more as they prepare for their 2014 "Small Town America Tour"!

Their performances can range from personality driven singer/songwriter sessions to a full band concert. All designed to be the perfect show for your venue whether it's an intimate bistro or a rodeo arena.

The Kristina Craig Band is proud to be an ICMA nominee for Female Vocalist of the Year, New Artist of the Year, and Vocal Group of the Year in The 2013 Inspirational Country Music Awards!

The Kristina Craig Band is also blessed to be involved with local ministries around the Nashville area, such as Last Call 4 Grace Ministries and the local women and children's shelter!

"Kristina bridges the gap between Christian music and country with a hint of blues. She infuses inspirational themes with often realistic, gritty topics. This makes her music worth listening to regardless of your favorite genre."

Matt Hundley of the Country Reviewer.
